ON THE COVER: Robert Gould Shaw and Massachusetts 54th Regiment Memorial
Created by Augustus Saint-Gaudens, this high-relief bronze monument depicts the 54th Regiment marching down Beacon Street on May 28, 1863 as they left Boston, en route to South Carolina during the Civil War. The attack on Fort Wagner, South Carolina on July 18, 1863, serves as a memorial to the group of men who were among the first African Americans to serve. At least 74 enlisted men and 3 officers were killed, including Colonel Shaw, and scores more were wounded. It took nearly fourteen years to complete this monument, which was unveiled in a ceremony on Memorial Day, May 31, 1897. The 1989 movie “Glory” told the story of the 54th Massachusetts Infantry and won three Academy Awards.

OH HOW HE LOVES YOU AND ME

Oh how He love you and me,
Oh how He loves you and me;
He gave His life,
what more could He give;
Oh how He loves you,
Oh how He loves me,
Oh how He loves you and me.

EPHESIANS 2:8-9 (NIV)

8For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God— 9not by works, so that no one can boast.
Memorial Day Litany

Minister: We pray that we may learn to love one another.
All: God, hear our prayer.

Minister: We remember those who have loved us enough to lay down their lives for us and pray that they may rest in peace.
All: God, hear our prayer.

Minister: We pray that You would comfort all those who mourn the loss in war of a loved one.
All: God, hear our prayer.

Minister: We pray that we may never take the freedoms we have for granted and will share them with others.
All: God, hear our prayer.

Minister: We pray that You will remove greed, envy, and lust for power and control from our hearts and the hearts of all people.
All: God, hear our prayer.

Minister: We pray that You will root out racism, sexism, and violence from our lives, our communities, our nation, and our world.
All: God, hear our prayer.

Minister: We pray that we may learn to share the world’s resources with all and not hoard them for ourselves.
All: God, hear our prayer.

Minister: We pray that we may learn to wage peace so that no more people will die in war.
All: God, hear our prayer.

Minister: We pray all these things in the name of Jesus Christ, trusting in the promise that whatever we ask in Christ’s name, You will give. Amen.

INTOJANE RITES OF PASSAGE MINISTRY
TRANSITION CEREMONY
Litany of Transition

Pastor: Mentors, what is your pleasure concerning these candidates for womanhood?

Mentors: Pastor, Elders, Congregation, and Parents, we give these candidates back to you in the same spirit of love that you gave them to us. We assure you that we have trained them in the ways they should go and affirm that they are ready to assume the responsibilities of womanhood.

Pastor: Elders, what is your pleasure?

Elders: Pastor, we have tested these candidates and have found them to be fit for the journey of womanhood that lies ahead. We, therefore, affirm their movement from one clearly defined state of existence to the next.

Pastor: Congregation, what is your pleasure?

Congregation: As people of faith who understand the need for Unashamedly Black and Unapologetically Christian women in the village, we affirm these candidates as the new women they have become.

Pastor: Parents, are you ready now to accept the fact that your daughters have become women and to give them the respect and responsibilities that come with womanhood?

Parents: We affirm that our daughter has become a woman and will not hold back anything she has earned in accord with that status.

Pastor: Candidates, hearing these affirmations made in the presence of God, do you now accept the identity and responsibilities of womanhood that have been conferred upon you by your extended family?

Initiates: As I have put aside my childish ways, I accept the wisdom of my elders who have guided me into womanhood and I pledge to demonstrate with my heart, mind, soul, and body that I am the woman you have recognized.

TRINITY YOUNG ADULTS IN GERMANY
FOR THE 500TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE REFORMATION!

Several members of Trinity United Church of Christ, along with thousands of Christians from across the globe, are in Germany for the 500th anniversary of the Reformation at the Kirchentag (Church Congress Conference). This past Thursday, Sierra Sims, Imani Abernathy, and two young adults from Germany participated in a conversation with former President Barack Obama and German Chancellor Angela Merkel, on the topic of “Being Involved in Democracy: Taking on Responsibility Locally and Globally.”

In addition to Imani and Sierra, other Trinitarians on this historical trip include Deacon Joi Johnson, Bryan Johnson, Michael Rucker, Cheyenne Powell, Mayah McIntosh, Efrem “EJ” Williams, Kwynn Riley, and Johari Dodd. On Thursday, along with several German young adults, they presented the Spoken Word with music, “CU-In The Mirror of God’s Eyes.”

We look forward to hearing about this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, which was coordinated by Rev. Dr. Stacey L. Edwards-Dunn, Min. Jené Colvin, and the Obama Foundation. Our ambassadors will return to the U.S. on Tuesday, May 30th. Please keep them in prayers for continued safety and traveling mercies.

To God be the Glory!

Award Tour

The Endeleo Institute recently received a Power of Excellence Award from the American Heart Association (AHA) acknowledging our collaborative work in health equity in Washington Heights. Health equity is complex and defined many ways but in its simplest form relates to each person having the opportunity to have the best health possible.

That typically doesn’t happen in communities lacking access to healthy food, affordable healthcare, and medication, quality education, sustainable jobs, small business opportunities and safe streets. These quality of life issues represent the Social Determinants of Health (SDOH) and addressing their root causes is what brought strong research (AHA) and community (Endeleo) together.

Endeleo was also selected to serve on the Heart Association’s national Health Equity and Social Determinants Task Force for a deeper dive into the complexities of health equity, strategizing on how to create and expand fair and just opportunities in under-resourced communities. For example, Endeleo’s efforts to improve the built environment in the form of the Woodson Library renovation, is an innovative way to build social cohesion in community. So much, that upon submitting a joint proposal highlighting the Woodson project, Endeleo and the American Heart Association were selected from over 100 proposals to make a presentation to a national audience at the 2nd Annual Root Cause Coalition Conference in Louisville, Kentucky in October.

We’re naturally excited about the opportunity to put Washington Heights on the map but just as enthused to see an existing asset transformed and repositioned to improve the overall health of the community. Leading is Fundamental!

2017 Churchwide Theme

18But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen. 2 Peter 3:18 (NRSV)

1st Quarter Theme: Growing in Love

January - Ephesians 3:16-19 (NRSV)
16I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, 17and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. 18I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, 19and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

February - Philippians 1:9-11 (NRSV)
9And this is my prayer, that your love may overflow more and more with knowledge and full insight 10to help you to determine what is best, so that in the day of Christ you may be pure and blameless, 11having produced the harvest of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

March - John 13:34 (NRSV)
34I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another.

2nd Quarter Theme: Growing in the Word of God

April - Colossians 3:16 (NRSV)
16Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God.

May - Luke 8:14 (NRSV)
14As for what fell among the thorns, these are the ones who hear; but as they go on their way, they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature.

June - 2 Timothy 2:15 (NIV)
15Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth.

3rd Quarter Theme: Growing in Holiness

July - 2 Corinthians 7:1 (NIV)
1Therefore, since we have these promises, dear friends, let us purify ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit, perfecting holiness out of reverence for God.

August - Romans 12:2 (NIV)
2Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

September - Exodus 15:2 (MSG)
God is my strength. God is my song, and, yes! God is my salvation. This is the kind of God I have and I’m telling the world!

4th Quarter Theme: Maturing in Christ

October - James 1:2-4 (NIV)
2Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, 3because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance. 4Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything.

November - Hebrews 5:12-14 (NIV)
12In fact, though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God’s word all over again. You need milk, not solid food! 13Anyone who lives on milk, being still an infant, is not acquainted with the teaching about righteousness. 14But solid food is for the mature, who by constant use have trained themselves to distinguish good from evil.

December - 1 Corinthians 13:11 (NIV)
11When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me.
